Wm E. Gladstone has been living a very quiet life in the Riviera. He has been spending most of his time reading, with interruptions only for his meals and two long walks a day. Mr. Gladstone is engaged on a literary work that will soon be published. His family and friends do everything in their power to keep the aged statesman's mind from politics.

The British House of Commons, following the German Reichstag, has adopted a resolution favoring the holding of a monetary conference to see what can be done to remedy the evils arising from the fluctuations and growing divergence in the relative value of gold and silver. This resolution was presented and adopted at the instance of the British Bimetallic League.

The following are the total net receipts of cotton at all ports September 1, 1894. Galveston 1,518,639 bales, New Orleans 2,172,679, Mobile 223,514, Savannah 827,520, Charleston 386,074, Wilmington 221,993, Norfolk 396,141, Baltimore 96,045, New York 157,258, Boston 227,978, Newport News 30,812, Philadelphia 61,88, West Point 253,735. Drunkenness has increased alarmingly in Belgium in the last forty years, according to M. Lejeune, lately Minister of Justice. The revenue from the excise in 1851 was 4,000,000 francs, now it is 33,000,000; the number of saloons has increased from 53,000 to 175,000, and the annual consumption of spirits is 12 litres per head of the entire population, or 48 litres for each adult. Crime has increased 200 per cent. and insanity 138, and of every 100 deaths among males 80 are traceable to alcohol.

A bill offering a reward of $100,000 is pending in Congress to any inventor, of any nation, who shall, before the year 1900, construct an aerial vessel capable of going thirty miles an hour through the air and carrying passengers and freight. But inventors need not wait for this bill to become a law before putting forth their efforts. The sum of $100,000 might be a trifle to the fortune that would await the man who should construct and cover with patents the air ship thus called for.

Bradstreet's says: While the course of general trade during the first two months of the current year has been disappointing, February ends and March begins with tangible though not as yet satisfactory signs of improvement. It is encouraging to note that gains are reported in the volume of trade at almost every Southern city, notwithstanding advices from Northern cities, whose jobbers supply Southern and Southwestern markets, that low prices for products had curtailed purchasing ability at the South and Southwest.

In thirty years the consumption of tobacco in England has risen from 29,000,000 to 62,000,000 pounds, and from an average of 19 ounces a head to 26 ounces. In the same time the consumption of non-alcoholic drinks has grown far in excess of alcoholic drinks. In 1861, 125,000,000 pounds of tea, coffee, cocoa, and chicory were imported to 265,000,000 pounds in 1893, while the rise in wines and spirits was from thirty-five to fifty-one million gallons. Beer rose from 24 gallons a head in 1861 to 33½ gallons in 1874, but has fallen off again to 29½ gallons.

The Government debt statement issued last week shows a net decerease in the public debt less cash in the treasury during February of $34,033,327. The expenditures for the eight months this year foot up $249,171,000, about $250,000 less than for the eight months of 1894. For February, 1895, they are $25,696,000, or $1,250,000 less than for February, 1894. As compared with 1894 the expenditures for the fiscal year up to date show increases of nearly $2,3000,000 in civil and miscellaneous expenses; nearly $1,000,000 in pensions; $2,225,000 interest; and a decrease of nearly $4,000,000 in war expenses; $1,000,000 in navy expenses and $50,000 for Indians.

Last week the Belgium cabinet brought before the chamber of deputies the arrangement by which the king of Belgium transfers to Belgium the Congo state. Hitherto the Congo state has had the king of Belgium for its sovereign, but has not been subject to the Belgian government. This is now to be changed and the Congo state will be in effect a Belgian colony. An understanding with France was had before the Belgium cabinet agreed to advise the deputies to receive the king's gift. France claims to have the right to succeed to the control of the Congo state if its present owner or his heirs on the throne of Belgium should ever part with its sovereignty, but agrees to the present transfer from the king to the [illegible]

THE LEGISLATURE.

Special Correspondence of the Observer.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb'y 25, 1895.

The bill in the legislature to require railroads to redeem unused tickets, and which is known as the scalpers bill has passed. The two most important provisions in the bill are "that at least 50 per cent of the ticket shall have been used, and that it shall be presented before the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date of sale."

This direct tax fund, the disposition of the unclaimed part, of which is giving so much worry to our law makers, cannot, according to the priviso of the government when it was refunded, be used until 6 years will have expired, and those six years will not be out before 1897. Then the legislature of that year can repeal or confirm the action of this body as they may deem best.

The following is an outline of the county government bill that the republicans required the populists to adopt: There are to be three county commissioners elected by the people. In counties where there are 200 voters who petition for it, the Governor is to appoint a board of audit and finance of two members. The caucus committee also recommended that next year the people elect three magistrates in each township. This the populists swallowed also. The populists were urged by their leaders to stand out for their original bill with the cumulative feature, but the republicans boldly declared that they had already yielded enough to the populists, and that they were now fully determined to assert themselves.

North Carolina is now without a State printer. The contract with the best State printer expired last week. The committee on public printing is to meet to-night to make another effort to determine the lowest bidder. Many think that it will be found that Edwards & Broughton of this city will be the fortunate ones—any how the bids are so close that it will take experts to make the decision.

There seems to be a very general feeling of satisfaction here over the Mexican appointment of Senator Ransom.

Rather a strange oversight occurred on the six per cent interest bill, and that was that there was no ratifying clause at the end, so according to the code, all bills that have not that clause go into effect 30 days after the adjournment of the legislature and as it is now about determined that instead of having adjourned the 15th of Feb'y as Senator Moody said they would do, it will not be until the 17th of March. Thus the money lenders have nearly two months in which to negotiate loans at the old rate of 8 per cent.

On Saturday morning Mrs. Mary S. Speight was found dead in her room at her home here. She was the daughter of the late Hon. John H. Bryan of this State, the sister of Mrs. John C. Winder, Mrs. A. P. Bryan, Mrs. Andrew Syme of this city, Mr. Henry Bryan of Newbern, and she also had a brother in Baltimore. She was a charter member of the Ladies Memorial Association, and almost from its beginning had been one of its vice-presidents. Her funeral was held from Christ church on Sunday, and the vestry of both Episcopal churches attended in a body.

On the 6 per cent interest bill several republicans boldly "bolted" the caucus action, which had ordered its members to vote for it, as it came from the Senate; French, Ewart, Williams of Craven, and Petret voted No.

There has been a favorable report from the House committee to appropriate $20,000 to the Atlanta Exposition.

The State Temperance bill was tabled in the Senate on Wednesday but the vote was so close that Mr. Tuttle who is such a champion to the bill says it will be introduced in the house with some chances.

The case of Mary Cram vs. Kutie Coe (one woman suing another for a husband) will come up March 6th. This is of much interest here as Mr. Cram and his alleged wife Kutie Coe Cram have been living here for years, and visited by some of Raleigh's best people. Wife No. 1 traced them here, and demands the husband.

The red-hot wave of indignation over the action of the House in refusing to adjourn for Lee and Washington, and then doing so for Fred Douglass, is still rolling on. It created surprise outside of the State and telegrams poured in asking for particulars. The Caucasian says that it is false, that the House did not refuse to adjourn for Lee and Washington, but the Raleigh News and Observer of Sunday cites the motion of the House, and the tabling of the motion of each instance. But no matter if it had adjourned a whole day for each of those gloriously great men, that was no reason why, even one moments adjournment should have been accorded Fred Douglass a negro. Let the lashing continue.

Following is the full text of the bill introduced by Senator Abell, of Johnston, and passed by the Legislature to make 6 per cent. the rate of interest:

Sec. 1. The legal rate of interest shall be six per centum (6 per cent.) per annum for each time as interest may accrue, and no more; and that the taking, receiving, reserving or charging a greater rate of interest either before or after the interest may accrue, when knowingly done, shall be a forfeiture of the entire interest which the note or other evidences of debt carries with it, or which has been agreed to be paid thereon. And in case a greater rate of interest has been paid, may recover back twice the amount of interest paid in action in the nature of an action for debt: Provided, such action shall be commenced within two years after the payment in full of such indebtedness. Provided further, that in any action brought in any court of competent jurisdiction, to recover upon any such note or other evidence of debt, it shall be lawful for the party against whom the action is brought to plead, as a counter claim, the penalty above provided for, in wit, twice the amount of interest paid as aforesaid, and also the forfeiture of the entire interest. And no costs shall be recovered by any party, whether plaintiff or defendant, who may endeavor to recover upon any usurious contract.

Sec. 2. That this act shall not apply to contracts executed heretofore.

Sec. 3. That all laws and clauses of laws in violation of this act are hereby repealed.

Senator Moody has introduced a bill to tax inheritances 8 per cent. on each $50,000, this tax to go to the public school fund. Several States have adopted this plan and found it worked well, but at a much lower rate.

The House, it will be remembered, passed the bill to create the county of Scotland out of part of Richmond. In the Senate an unfavorable report was made on the bill. As the latter passed the House the question is left to the vote of the people of all Richmond county. It is claimed that it would in this way be voted down.

In the Senate on Monday bills were introduced to provide for revising and digesting the public laws: to amend the code regarding standard keepers: to amend the act of 1893 regarding financial associations: to amend the constitution by prohibiting any official from taking free passes from railways: to provide for the display and arrangement of the woman's exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition: to change the name of the town of Elm City to Toisnot: bills passed to amend the stock law of Chatham: to incorporate the Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Charlotte: to put convicts on Warren county's roads: to amend the charter of Salisbury: to amend Mecklenburg's game laws: to incorporate the Raleigh Mutual Saving and Deposit Company: the bill to create another cause of divorce was tabled. In the House a resolution was offered to raise a special committee to consider a reduction of the salaries, commissions and fees of all state and county officers. Bills were introduced to compel taxpayers to list their solvent credits: to consolidate and amend the charter of Raleigh: to provide for a public school tax in the various school districts: to repeal the bastardy law: to regulate sales of Jamaica ginger to change the dividing line between Greene and Pitt counties: to allow Currituck to levy a special tax: to amend the code regarding statement of actions: to regulate hours of labor in manufactories: to incorporate the Roanoke railway and bridge company: to incorporate the Morganton and Shelby railway: to protect owners of timber trees: to enforce the payment of taxes on insolvent debts: to amend Tarboro's charter: to establish a colored normal school at Winston. There were 69 bills introduced. The 6 per cent. interest bill was discussed 3 hours. There were 19 amendment, viz: to put the same penalty on national banks as on individuals; to make 7 per cent. legal rate; to except call loans; to except Henderson county; to except any county that wished to refund their bonds; to except B. & L. associations; to leave to the vote of the people the interest question; to except Wayne county in transactions between its citizens; to require the bill to take effect next January; to provide that the act does not pertain to commercial paper: to accept New Hanover and Craven counties; all these amendments were voted down and the bill passed as it came from the Senate. Rules were suspended and the bill passed final reading the vote being ayes 74 nays 16.

On Tuesday the following bills were introduced: for the relief of ex-Clerk Watkins, of Craven: to allow members of the legislature to hold other offices: to allow McDowell county to levy a special tax: to give Davidson county the convict road law. Bills passed changing the time of holding courts in Durham and Alamance counties. The special order for the day was taken up at noon, this being to regulate the sale of liquor in the State: an amendment was offered excepting druggists: another requesting a majority of voters to call an election, both of which were adopted. Many members spoke and the galleries were filled with ladies who listened with a great deal of interest to the debate. Senator Hoover made an earnest plea for the bill. A motion to table was made. The vote was a tie 21 to 21. President Doughton voted no. In the House bills were introduced as follows: To require owners of bicycles to dismount when meeting other vehicles: to amend the charter of Raleigh so the mayor will be elected by the people: to regulate taxes on property insured against loss by fire: to protect all owners of sheep and goats: to allow Craven county to build a bridge across Neuse and Trent rivers: to make it a misdemeanor to send in false alarms at Newbern; for relief of Robert O. Burton; the special order of the day was the election law bill. The debate occupied only an hour and a half. Five amendments were offered, but all were called down, and the bill passed 2nd reading just as preferred by the fusion caucus: a resolution passed 2nd reading that the legislature go to the New Berne Fair on Thursday and return on Saturday. Bills passed allowing pensions to widows whose husbands have died at any time since the war from injuries and wounds received during the war: to allow all county officers to give bonds in security companies: to prohibit killing of fish with dynamite: to allow trustees in certain cases to act as attorneys: to amend the code so summons can be served on persons who run away: repealing the charter of the Eastern band of Cherokee Indians: and to prohibit county officers from holding office more than two terms in succession. Bill to make separation of man and wife a cause of divorce, was made special order for Friday, and a bill to create a code commission was made special order for Monday

The Senate on Wednesday considered the following bills: to allow persons to probate their wills before death: to amend the code regarding the insurance law: to stay executions of judgments for debts: to equalize and reform taxation: to allow each taxpayer $200 worth of personal exemption: the bill to invalidate mortgages, deeds and other instruments witnessed outside of the state was tabled. As a special order, the Chandler liquor bill came up: an amendment to strike out the words county commissioners was lost, there being a tie and the president voting no: an amendment to allow counties, townships, cities and towns to vote upon the ratification of the bill, and reject its provisions by a majority vote, was adopted 30 to 6. An amendment to submit the bill to the qualified voters of the State was lost. Monday's amendment to strike out section 1 of the bill was adopted, this virtually destroyed the bill and the motion to table prevailed. The vote on Moody's amendment was very close. A senator who had just previously left the hall would have voted against it and then president Doughton would have had for the third time to have settled a tie. The resolution to go to the New Berne Fair was lost. In the House a favorable report on the bill for the election of commissioner of Agriculture by the legislature: unfavorable report on the Mississippi liquor law: report without prejudice on the bill for compelling attendance at the public schools. Bills were introduced to incorporate the French Broad railway: to regulate the sale of malt, and fermented liquors: to regulate assignments for relief of plaintiff in quo warrents and suits: to incorporate the Knights of Dameon with insurance privileges: to allow Hyde county commissioners to make title to lands: to exempt from road duty, persons who pay road taxes: to amend the law regarding the distribution of public school funds: a resolution was adopted that the House visit the New Berne Fair on Friday 22nd: the bill to regulate tobacco warehouse charges passed just as it came from the Senate: the election law bill passed final reading after two hours debate by a strict party vote, ayes 74, nays 31, democrats voting no.

Senate on Thursday bills were introduced to provide for the election of justices of peace: to amend chapter 11 volume 1 of the code: to restore local self-government: to increase the age of liability to road work: to amend the code relative to search warrants: to allow holders of unregistered lands to register them: to transfer Stokes county to the 5th congressional district: an effort was made to reconsider yesterday's vote, and go to the New Berne Fair: Starbuck said the the populists and republicans senators had free passes in their pockets. There was much feeling in the discussion, but the resolution was again tabled: the bill to transfer Mitchell county to the 9th district, a special order was discussed and made special order for next Tuesday: the following members of the agricultural board to fill vacancies were nominated: E. L. Franck, J. J. Long, and E. A Allen, all legislators. Bill to pay Rev. Solomon Pool $2,284 money advanced to the University was discussed and passed. Bill to give Farmers' Alliance an insurance feature passed. Bill to prevent adulteration or misbranding of food passed 2nd reading.

In the House Crews colored sent up a resolution, "Whereas Fred Douglass died yesterday, and whereas we greatly deplore his death, be it resolved that the house adjourn at noon as a mark of respect." This was amended by making the hour 2 instead of 12, and was then adopted. Bills passed incorporating the Carolina, Tennessee and Ohio railroad company; to confer jurisdiction to probate of deeds in certain cases; a resolution was adopted to inquire into the management of the penitentiary during the campaign, with reference to statement that convicts were locked up during the election on the Roanoke Farms so the guards could vote.

Senator Moody's bill to tax inheritance has created much interest. The Senate Judiciary committee has reported the bill favorably. This tax has been adopted in several States, with good results, but the rate of taxation is much lower than Senator Moody's bill for 8 per cent on $50,000.

In the Senate on Friday a resolution was introduced to pay $100 to Early who contested the seat of Mitchell from Bertie; Bill were introduced to incorporate the N. C. savings and trust company; to restore Surry county to the 5th congressional district; a resolution to adjourn at 1 o'clock as a mark of respect to the memory of George Washington was adopted; Bills passed 3rd reading to prevent the adulteration and mishandling of food and food ingredients; to incorporate the Sanford, Lillington and Eastern railroad; to provide for a succession tax on inheritances, for the support of the public schools was made a special order for Monday; Bill to prevent any save chartered insurance companies from doing business in this State was also postponed until Monday. In the House a resolution was offered that when the House adjourn it do so in respect to the birthday of Washington. This was adopted. Bills were introduced to enforce liens of subcontractors; to create another cause of divorce; to provide for registering all unregistered deeds; to make county officers responsible for lynchings in their counties; to secure fair and honest settlement of losses under insurance policies; to establish county boards of medical examiners; the bill to pay solicitors salaries was made special order for Wednesday; Bills passed allowing the people of Buncombe to vote on whether liquor shall be sold at Asheville; to confine to persons who stand in the place of a parent the right to sue for the wrong issue of marriage licerses; to require all public school teachers to be examined; for the relief of clerk Mirror of Mecklenburg; to amend the charter of the Charlotte gas company; to prevent 'possum hunting from Feb. 1 to Oct. 1; to require railroads to redeem unused tickets.

Garrison of Mecklenburg, a soldier, was put on the list of first class pensioners. In the Senate: A bill to aid the work of the State Horticultural Society; to allow Leaksville to issue bonds; to build a jail at Albemarle; to amend charter of Goldsboro; to amend laws of 1889 in regard to soldiers in the late war; a bill for the relief of certain tax payers of McDowell county on account of losses by fire; to amend charter of Bessemer City; Bill to amend the charter of of the city of Wilmington.

The special order for the Senate was the bill to lend the monumental association $10,000 to pay for the bronze statuary for the Confederate monument; Senator Moody of Haywood, made a very able speech in championship of this bill; there was a long three hours' debate on this bill, but it was finally killed, the vote being 8 to 28; those 8 who voted for this bill were: Messrs. Adams, Dula, Fowler, Mitchell, Moody of Haywood, Rice, White of Alamance, White of Perquimans. Senator Starbuck demanded to know what security the ladies were to give when Senator Moody announced amid much applause that he would be their security; the bill is lost, and the outlook now is that the monument will only be the handsome granite base with the magnificent shaft 35 feet in heighth. The ladies of course are greatly disappointed that the magnificent bronzes will have to be abandoned, but it cannot be helped.

The Fred Douglass Infamy.

HAVE DISGRACED THE STATE.

Charlotte Observer.

Douglass was a man of high ability, and the colored race held him in high and proper esteem. His intellectuality commanded for him a large measure of respect for the white people of the South, but there was nothing in his life or public services, nothing in the view he took and expressed freely of the South and of Southern people, to suggest the adjournment of the Legislature of a Southern State in his honor when he died.

But this action derives its principal significance from what preceded it. However ill it might be regarded if viewed alone, it shall not be looked at by itself, but in connection with preceding events. What? These: That a resolution to adjourn to-day, in recognition of Washington's birthday, had just been voted down; that on the 19th of January, before there was any claim that the work of the session was pressing, the Legislature refused to adjourn for the birthday of Gen. Robert E. Lee.

These are the facts, all intertwined, which we press upon the consideration of the people of North Carolina. The House refused to adjourn in honor of George Washington; refused to adjourn in honor of Robert E. Lee; adjourned in honor of Frederick Douglass.

Words declare with all due deliberation that it has disgraced itself—disgraced the State.

FRED DOUGLASS AND THE NORTH CAROLINA HOUSE.

Richmond Dispatch.

That the party in power in North Carolina is not truly representative of the good people of that noble old State is conspicuously shown by the resolution of respect passed and adjournment ordered in the House on Thursday in respect to the memory of Frederick Douglass!

We can appreciate the desire of the colored members to honor one of the most noted men of their race, but how their white allies could make such an invidious distinction against Washington and Lee we can explain only on the ground that they are of the opinion that Douglass was a greater and better man than either Washington or Lee.

This action, so repulsive to the feelings of all true North Carolinians, shows that the negro vote is a great power in the politics of that State. He was the instrument of whom the Populists and white Republicans made use in overthrowing the Democrats of North Carolina. And yet we are told that the negro is no longer a power in Southern politics!

The North Carolina fact is at variance with the Virginia theory. The negro is a great power in North Carolina; he is a great power in Virginia. But in North Carolina he has gotten the ascendancy, while in Virginia he is waiting for the whites to divide so that he may make his vote tell against the Democrats and in favor of just such a combination as is defying the sentiment and outraging the feelings of North Carolina.

But the North Carolinians are not going to stand this sort of thing long. Soon they will rise in their might and clear the political field of these intruders. How they will do it we do not know—but they are going to do it, and do it thoroughly as well.

THE ROLL OF INFAMY.

The following are the names of the fusion members of the House of Representatives, composing that hybrid faction which ignored the day devoted to the memory of George Washington and refused to observe the State holiday made in commemoration of Gen. Robert E. Lee, but closed its session for the day in respect to the memory of the negro miscegenationist, Fred Douglass:

"JUST A FEW WORDS"

That some of the young men have to say who have ridden the

RAMBLER BICYCLE.

Messrs. A. J. Pemberton and Co.,

GENTLEMEN:

Replying to your favor of recent date in regard to the "Rambler Bicyle" will say: The Rambler is as near perfect in every respect as it is possible to make a wheel.

I have owned five (5) different makes of wheels (among the number was a Columbia) and I have ridden many more, but the Rambler is the easiest running and the most comfortable wheel to ride on that I have ever mounted. I am sure I shall never want to trade again.

Wishing you all the success you surely deserve in selling the best wheel on earth, I remain

Yours very truly,
E. M. SHEETZ.

Feb'y 12, 1895

A. J. Pemberton & Co.,

GENTLEMEN:

Regarding your query as to "How I like the Rambler Bicycle," I need only state my experience. Last June I bought a "Columbia," and after riding it two months, I sold it and purchased a "Rambler."

I can unhesitatingly say that the Rambler is the best I have ever mounted, and really did not know what riding was until I had my Rambler.

...NEW POLITICAL ALIGNMENT.

Congress has adjourned without passing any measure for the financial relief of the people. It was the failure of the law-making department of the government (which consists of Congress and the President) to do so in the first eighteen months of democratic power, that caused the overwhelming condemnation of the democratic party in last Fall's elections. Close students of affairs who were not blinded by the enticements of goldbuggery, were aware of this at the time. It is becoming increasingly apparent with every day's progress in the path of commercial and industrial disaster which the country is treading now, and with every fresh manifestation of the brutality of those who use their official position to oppress the overburdened people for the enrichment of a part of the people—that part which consists of their friends, if not of themselves. So apparent, indeed, has become the truth of what we have ventured to say, and particularly since the recent bond deal knocked the last prop from under the feet of the optimists, that the country may now be definitely said to have settled down to the conviction that it was its laches in respect to the money question, and that almost only, which caused the people's recent extraordinary rebuke of the party in power. It is difficult to apportion the blame between the administration and the democratic majority in Congress. It may be said, however, that the first blow was struck at party discipline (without which a party majority in Congress must inevitably become an imbecile mob) when Congress was invited at the extra session to take up the tremendous party question of the finances and to treat it independently of party lines. By that act party cohesion was flung to the winds. As to what happened afterwards, it becomes a nice question, and one which it is not profitable to linger over, which side is most to blame—those who receive patronage for voting against their constituents' wishes and instructions, or those who buy such votes with patronage. One thing the people have settled in their minds, and that is that, except for such purchase and sale, a proper and comprehensive financial policy would now be the law of the land, or the people would be still enjoying the clumsy relief afforded by the 50 millions added yearly to their currency by the Sherman law.

As we have so often predicted, the new political alignment will follow the cleavage produced by the money issue. The honest populists will return to the democracy, if the next national convention shall declare, as is likely, for free and unlimited silver, and the machine populists and goldbug democrats (generally, also, the machine wing of the democracy) will fuse with their natural ally, the republicans.

A tremendous effort is now being made to confuse the councils of the democracy by the wide publication of the assertion that those who favor silver will form a new party. There is no need to do so among democrats, even if there were such a desire. The overwhelming majority favors American independent bimetalism, and that majority will control the next convention. All that is necessary is that the rank and file see to it that every leader who has heretofore been guilty of trading with populists or republicans be sternly ordered to the rear. With these traitors manacled, the party will win, and the people's interest therewith.

THE UNIVERSITY.

Next week we shall publish an article on the University, which it has been impossible to get into this issue, which clearly demonstrates the fact that the University is really the means by which the State offers to the poor the facilities for education that otherwise would be the privilege of the rich only. That is the theory, of course, of the propriety of State aid to higher education, but the article in question shows, beyond a peradventure, that such has been and is actually the fact in practice at Chapel Hill.

THE RADICAL LEGISLATURE.

The mongrel legislature at Raleigh is continuing its disgraceful career. But every now and then, through the cloth of infamy it is weaving, gleams the thread which connects its acts with a democratic ante-election dicker.

Remember, democrats, what has caused our proud old mother to bow her head in shame to-day. Don't forget the real culprits. These are not to be found among the poor puppets who play upon the little stage in the capitol at Raleigh.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The OBSERVER extends its sincere sympathy to its excellent neighbor, the Kinston Free Press, which lost over $1,000 beyond insurance in the big fire there a week ago. Mr. Herbert, the editor and owner, is an accomplished journalist and gentleman.

We have alluded elsewhere to the efforts now being made to throw discredit upon the natural desire of patriotic democrats to secure the due influence in the party councils of the overwhelming pro-silver sentiment of the rank and file. One of the most extraordinary of these efforts was seen the other day, when the Atlanta Journal's goldbug Washington correspondent's despatch alleging that Congressman Livingston of Georgia had declared for a new party, actually appeared two days later, as fresh and original Washington news, in the correspondence of one of our North Carolina papers! the date being altered to suit, of course. An amusing outcome was that the very day the North Carolina paper was publishing the correspondence in question, the Atlanta paper was acknowledging that its correspondent had misrepresented Mr. Livingston.

Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, and unremitting vigilance will be the price of democratic victory next year. The party must put none but democrats on guard. Reduce to the ranks, or send over to the enemy, the traitors who have made dickers with populists and republicans.

The Atlanta Constitution is doing a great work in upholding the true principles of democracy as against the centralization and paternalism of the republicans and populists. If we only had in North Carolina a city as large as Atlanta so that a paper of the influence and circulation as well as of the politics of the Constitution might flourish here, we should not now be bowed down in shame with the disgraceful doings of the Douglass legislature. The great Georgian exponent of Democracy bristles with epigrammatic paragraphs like this, for example: "The fact that the Rothschild syndicate can control the exchange market shows very clearly what interests were drawing out our gold for export." Such sentiments are to some of our goldbugs like flaunting a red rag before a bull, and straightway they denounce the Constitution as a populist sheet—never stopping to consider how ridiculous they thus make themselves to appear to rational people, who observe that they have no word of condemnation for those democratic trustees who use the tremendous power of the democratic organization to hold up the hands of populist Treasurer Worth and other undemocratic persons and projects.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Special Correspondence of the Observer.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 4, 1895.

After killing the bill to loan the confederate monumental association $10,000, by a vote of 28 to 8, Senator Grant of Wayne introduced a bill to appropriate $10,000 for the completion of the monument. This bill just did pass final reading by a vote of 21 to 20. It now has to come up in the House, and it may be killed there.

After the Douglas business in the House the other day Lusk of Buncombe tried to smooth it over and say that they did adjourn at the usual hour in memory of Lee and Washington. It is said that the House records have been "doctored" so as to lessen if possible the Douglass disgrace. It is said that Butler while in Washington was so besieged by questions as to why this Douglass resolution was passed that he was glad to leave.

The republican senator from Yadkin has again been so hilariously drunk that he was put in the guard house, and yet in spite of all this he has not been unseated.

Death has again visited the general assembly. This time it was Senator Francks of Onslow county. He died of pneumonia after only one weeks illness.

In the Senate last week three ladies of Goldsboro were appointed on the board of trustees of the graded school, one of these ladies is Mrs. Wm. S. O. B. Robinson.

In the early morning dawn of last Saturday the watchman in the capital grounds, saw there was something unusual the matter with the statue of George Washington which stands near the south gate of the square, upon close inspection it was found that the handsome bronze figure was draped in mourning from the head down. No one knows the one who did it (?). The keeper of the capital ordered it taken off immediately.

Senator Moody has a young son here, who is a page. He with a number of boys were sliding down the bannisters of the capital, when he lost his hold and fell about 12 feet striking on the granite flooring. He was badly hurt, at one time it was thought to be fatal, but he is improving.

Stewart Bros. of Winston have been awarded the contract for public printer in the Senate. This was done on the majority report, in the face of the fact that the minority's report showed testimony of experts that Edwards & Broughton of this city had made a bid over $500 cheaper than any others. It is said that Edwards & Broughton will enter a protest against the Senate action, and that there will be a big fight over it in the House. There are 27 members of the printing committee and but only 10 were present when the vote was taken and two of these did not vote so it was 4 to 3 and the majority report went to the senate upon the affirmative vote of only four out of 27 members of the committee.

Mrs. Mary Speight whose death has already been mentioned left property to the amount of $25,000, of this she left Christ church, and the church of the Good Shepherd of this city $800, and $500 respectively toward the church debts. To the two dioceses of the State she left $1,000 to the Western and $500 to the Eastern, for missionary purposes, and $10,000 to the State University.

In the Senate on Saturday a bill to establish a State reformatory for youthful criminals passed 3rd reading. It appropriates $25,000 for the establishing of the institution and then appropriates $10,000 annually for its maintenance.

The directors of the State Fair association met here last week to discuss business. Col. Carr has already spent of his own money $2,500. The association is still $4,000 behind.

At a populist caucus last week Marion Butler made a strong address in which he flatly announced that there were to be no more populist-republican caucuses. That the time had come for the populists to assert themselves as a party. He said if the populists thought they were indebted to republicans for anything on account of his election to the senate that he would resign his seat. He said the railroad commissionership belonged to the populists, and they were to have it. So Otho Wilson came out next day announcing himself a candidate. The caucus determined to help the confederate monument; to defeat the proposed new criminal district for New Hanover and Mecklenburg; to tear the election bill to pieces and try to force cumulative; to kill out the Shaffer and Young Raleigh charter bills, (this has been done), and to oppose the changing of any more charters.

The Labdell car wheel works here are doing a fine business. They, at one casting, moulded over 40 wheels.

Avera Butler, a young fellow who several years ago killed his father in Sampson county because he ill treated his mother was tried and put in the penitentiary for life, a few days ago he stole a suit of clothes belonging to a guard, and went to a new guard who had just been put on, and told him the warden said to leave the gate keys and his gun with him, and for the guard to come to the warden. This the guard did. Butler dropped the keys to two 30 year prisoners, and they opening the gate all three made their escape and have not yet been captured.

The railroad attorneys in trying to kill certain bills before the legislature said that there was one bill to prevent railroads from giving any free passes to any one. That the introducers of the bill were not the framers but that Judge Walter Clark drew the bill. This charge has made Judge Clark and his friends very angry.

In the Wake Superior court there is quite a drag. The docket was quite a full one, but all were of little importance, even though there were six divorce cases docketed.

The bronzes for the confederate monument are especially handsome. They are three in number, and two bronze medallions—one of these bears the seal of North Carolina—and the other the seal of the Confederacy—these are the figures in bronze, one an artilleryman, one a cavalryman, and one an infantryman, the cavalryman and artilleryman are life size, and will stand at the base of the monument, while the infantryman is nine feet in heighth, and is to rest on top of the monument. From the brow of this figure will flash forth an electric star. Work is progressing nicely on the monument now but it will not be finished for fully a month yet.

A gentleman of about 40 years registered at the Park as A. L. Jones of Norfolk Va., on last Thursday; on Friday he was joined, upon the arrival of the Norfolk train, by a pretty young lady Miss Cora Warren. While he went in search of a license and a magistrate, she changed her traveling suit for a dress of creamy white silk, and in the handsome parlors of the Park they were married. Mr. Jones formerly lived at Merry Oaks, Chatham county, and there he left a short time ago a wife from whom he had gotten a divorce.

Mr. A. F. Page has sold the Park Hotel to three of his sons and they will in future own the building. It will be under the same management as it now is, but there islature also elected W. F. Detnam T. B. Keogh and James B. Dudley trustees of the colored A. & M. College. At the night session in House some of the bills taken up were as follows: For relief of physicians Pegram and Horton, provided that this shall not exempt said physicians from examination upon Medical State Board provided for other physicians; to abolish the office of Directors and elect instead a board of Trustees of the Morganton Deaf and Dumb Asylum; to amend charter of Lincolnton so as to let the people vote on a bond issue for town improvements; to require a fair and honest settlement of insurance policies; to incorporate French Broad Railway Co.; to abolish a graded school in Washington; to regulate sale of apple and grape juice in Robeson passed 3rd reading.

In the Senate on Thursday, Senator Grant, of Wayne, introduced a bill to appropriate $10,000 for the completion of the confederate monument. He made a fine speech in favor of the bill, as did also Senators Adams, Dowd, Hoover and Moody, of Haywood; Starbuck, Farthing, Fortune, Black, and Sigmen spoke in opposition. The bill passed 2nd reading 19 to 14. It will come up again to-day on 3rd reading; bills passed to abolish graded schools at Clinton, and for the relief of Sheriff Kenan, of Duplin; to create a board of local managers for the Goldsboro colored normal school, also to create board of trustees for Goldsboro graded school (three ladies on the board); the county government bill came up as the special order; an amendment was adopted providing for the appointment by a judge of two members of a board of finance, different in politics from the commissioners, 4 votes out of the 5 to be necessary for a financial measure; Moody said the bill meant the election of county commissioners by the people and making the simple county boards of finance. There was a hot debate but the bill passed by a vote of 30 to 6.

In the House bills were introduced to incorporate the Southport and Western railway; to amend the code regarding the crime of false pretence; to relieve tax collectors in towns and cities; to establish the 13th judicial district; a special committee of 3 was appointed to investigate the charges against judges and lawyers made by Mrs. Patti D. B. Arrington, and give authority to send for persons and papers and report to the legislature, or the Supreme Court; bills passed giving the white A. & M. College $10,000 and the colored A. & M. College $5,000 annually; reducing the salary of railway commissioners to $1,500, this act to take affect at the expiration of Z. W. Wilson's term of office; requiring fire insurance companies to pay full value of policies in case of total loss, give companies power to remove cases from one county to another, and revokes their charters if they remove a suit from a state to a federal court.

Thursday's session of the Senate: Bills to provide for a special levy of tax, to supplement the public school fund, and requiring it shall be voted on at every general election until carried pass 3rd reading. The following coutties were excepted: Perquimans, Hertford, Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Chowan, Gates, Cumberland, New Hanover, Bertie Catawba, Halifax, Caswell, Alleghany, Person, Union, Anson, Wake, Granville, Edgecombe, Rockingham, Lenoir, Onslow, Craven, Cartaret, Jones, Moore, Franklin, Nash and Wilson; to amend charter of Elizabeth city passed 3rd reading; for county of Johnston to levy tax to build a jail; to incorporate Carolina and North Western railway; to create the office of county lumber inspectors was tabled; to form the couty of Scotland passed over until Friday; to allow commissioners of Moore county to fund the county indebtedness passed second reading; Senator Moody sent forward a resolution to abolish the county of Sampsom, as the Senator from that county spends most of his time in the gallery, the resolution was adopted amid much laughter. Night session in the House—Bills passed: To amend charter of Morganton; to incorporate New Berne Insurance Company; to incorporate Friend's Orphanage in Guilford county.

Friday in the Senate the following bills were introduced: To amend the charter of Lenoir; to extend corporate limits of Weldon; to allow Sampson county to levy a special tax, to require all railway trains to stop one minute at all towns of 600 inhabitants; to protect dairy men; to allow purchase of farm for the State; to incorporate bank of Tarboro; to define and punish train robbing; the public printing was taken up—Senator Westmoreland sent up the contract, and bond of Stewart Bros. Winston, for public printing, Senator Dowd offered a minority report in which it was shown by experts that Edwards & Broughton of this city had made the lowest bid, but of course the majority report was adopted; the conference committee in the punitive damages railway bill was discharged as they could not agree; bill to appropriate $10,000 to confederate monument passed third reading by 21 to 20; the election law bill passed second reading, by a strict party vote 28 to 5; providing for the election of justices by this legislature and by the people in future passed 2nd reading; the Senate elected trustees of the University. In the House bills were introduced to define robbing and fix punishment for it; to allow the penitentiary to buy Caledenia farm; to regulate sale of liquor in New Berne; to create another term of Wake Superior Court; to punish bribery in political communities; House went into a committee of the whole on revenue bill; amendments made and 22 sections acted on, it agreed taxes on polls, $124, state tax, 21½; pension tax, 3½; school tax, 16; $25 on each billiard or pool table. A section taxing druggists $41 annually was stricken out. At the night session in the House on Friday: Bill to incorporate Salisbury loan and trust company, and to fund the floating debt of Wilmington passed 3rd reading; also the bill to incorporate Portsmouth Lumber Company, and for the relief of the ex-Sheriff of Pamlico; the special order was for the election of justices of the peace, it was amended by leaving the appointment in the hands of the legislature, and then it passed 3rd reading; in the House Mr. Julian introduced a bill to provide for the soldier's home; and an appropriation of $8,500, to amend the charter of Morganton, license or no license left to the people; in regard to the electing of trustees to the Morganton insane asylums, abolishing directors, passed 3rd reading; the Young Raleigh charter came up, it was discussed at much length, the bill was defeated by a vote of 57 to 17; the school book bill came up involving the question of county or state adopted; the vote on county adoption was ayes 66 nays 13 passed second and third reading; to incorporate New Berne St. Railway and Lighting Co. passed 3rd reading; to refund the indebtedness of Henderson county passed 3rd reading; to reduce the fees of probate and registration of deeds in Brunswick county passed 3rd reading.

Senate proceedings on Saturdry were: will be some improvements made.

There is a great deal of Grippe here with a tendency to run into pneumonia in very many cases. Gov. Carr has been quite sick but is able to be in office again.

Col. T. C. Fuller and his son Jones have returned to Raleigh from Santa Fe New Mexico, where Judge Fuller's business called him.

It is stated that a daughter of one of our ex-Supreme Court Judges is soon to be married

In the Senate on Monday bills were introduced: To amend the charter of New Berne; to allow people of Warren to vote on the repeal of the stock law; to prevent sale of adulterated meal and flour; to raise revenue for the public schools; bill to prevent sale of adulterated kerosene under penalty of not less than $100, was referred; the county government bill was made special order for noon to-morrow, and the bill to make an appropriation for the ladies exhibit at Atlanta the special order for Saturday; bill to appropriate $2,500 for the Lindley Training school was tabled; bills passed amending charter of Salisbury; to change fall terms of courts in McDowell, Burke and Caldwell; to incorporate Carolina and Northwestern railway; to allow schools districts to vote taxes in aid of schools; to allow guaranty companies to make bonds for state, county and other officers, and other persons for whom bonds are required half the cost of making bonds can be paid out of trusts funds; bills were tabled to secure equal payments of debts of insolvents; to remove colored normal school from Franklinton to Warrenton.

In the House an unfavorable report was made on the bill to reduce the salaries and fees of state and county officers; a resolution was introduced that the legislature adjourn March 8th at noon. Bills were introduced: To create a new county out of parts of Cleveland and surrounding counties; to provide Bibles for jail prisoners; to facilitate the keeping of Wake's roads in repair; to allow payment of pensions, checks or warrants of balance due pensioners at time of death; to amend charter of Morganton, and allow voters to vote on sale of liquor; to provide for the maintenance of the penitentiary; to allow sale of timber trees before partition; to regulate Superior court terms in 2nd and 3rd districts; to incorporate the Norfolk and Camden railroads. Lusk offered a resolution regarding the action of the House in adjourning in memory of Fred Douglass. This caused a hot personal debate. The fusionists voted for it, and the democrats against it, 53 to 29. Ray, democrat, gave notice of protest. Smith, democrat, made an amendment, but it was lost. The following were elected members of the board of agriculture to fill vacancies: E. L. Francks, J. J. Long and E. A. Aiken. A bill to require corporations which issue scrip to pay it in cash at the option of the holder was adopted, with an amendment excepting Rutherford county.

On Tuesday bills were introduced in the Senate to repeal the act creating labor statistic bureau; to reduce expenses of agricultural department; to provide for and promote the oyster industry; to complete a canal in Hyde county; to repeal charter of Martin; for relief of ex-sheriff Kenan of Duplin; to instruct lunatic asylums to make a statement of the effects of strong drink; to create township of Rolesville in Wake; a resolution was adopted that to-morrow there be an election of officers of the new criminal circuit of Buncombe, Henderson, Madison and Haywood counties to wit: For Judge, H. G. Ewart; Solicitor, McCall, and for Clerk, W. M. Wilson. Bill passed amending charter of Wilmington; the special order the county government bill was postponed until to morrow; the bill to transfer Mitchell county to the 9th district passed after a long debate. Bill to abolish criminal court circuits of Mecklenburg and New Hanover, and create a new circuit composed of those counties, as well as Wake, Edgecombe, Forsythe and Craven came up. Saturday night there was another night session, and in the Senate the following bills were introduced.

There was no night session of the Senate, but in the House the following bills were passed: For relief of late sheriff of Pender; to exempt from taxation the property of the Roanoke colony memorial association; bill to charter Nofolk and Camden railroad, which may be extended to Elizabeth City; to incorporate Southport and Western railway; to incorporate Tennessee River improvement company; to incorporate the Southport terminal and improvement company; to incorporate the El Dorado mining company; to incorporate N. C. Teachers association; Representative Lineback of Forsyth county introduced a bill for the relief of James E. Barron, a one legged confederate soldier—the committee had sent in an unfavorable report, for which Mr. Lineback scored them. He said the man had been shot all to pieces during the war, and that now because he owns a sterile stumpy rocky little piece of ground he was refused pension. He finally came out triumphant for his name was put on the pension list.

FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER--SUPPLEMENT.

THE OBSERVER.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

E. J. HALE, Editor and Proprietor.

CUT DOWN THE CROP

Mr. H. P. Russell, of the New York Cotton Exchange, after a business trip through the South, gives as his opinion that the cotton acreage will not be reduced The cotton farmers seem to be thoroughly wedded to one money crop and to risk all on five cent's cotton. They are slow to satisfy that it is safer and wiser to diversify crops and cut down heroically the acreage for cotton. It seems that a burnt child has ceased to dread the fire.

They continue to grow so much cotton in the face of known facts and bitter experience. Is it not certain that in 1894, and up to the present in 1895, the price of cotton has been extremely low and unsatisfactory to farmers? Is it not true that not many farmers in the 100 can afford to make cotton at 4½ and 5 cents? Is it not apparent that India, already a large producer of cheap cotton, can be stimulated by England to the production of double or three times the amount now made? Is it not a fact that Egypt makes very fine cotton, and can make a great deal of it? Is it not a fact that South America not only grows a great deal of cheap cotton but can increase the crop at will?

Then look at Japan with its 41,000,000 of people. What hinders it, progressive, wide-awake, full of energy and intelligence, to enter upon cotton planting on a large scale? Is not China also capable of becoming a cotton grower?

The wise course, we steadfastly hold, is for the cotton planters to make less by one-half, and to put the other half of their acreage in a variety of products. Cotton surely pays much less than corn, tobacco, trucking, hog raising, etc. The way out of the wilderness is not by the cotton route. It is not in continuing to grow great crops of cotton by the intensified or any other known method If every cotton planter used the intense system—heavy manuring—so as to make from 600 to 1,000 pounds of cotton to the acre, the South would make 20 000 000 bales and then cotton would sell for 2 cents a pound or less

The safe plan is to make not more than 7 000,000 bales—6,000,000 would be better—and enrich the land to do this so as to require not one half of the usual acreage for this amount, and grow every thing else that brings money into the pockets. Raise your hog and hominy, make your own manures, thus saving money now spent for fertilizers outside, and you will be on the road to independence because on the road to prosperity and safety.

The Dear Girls.

Once upon a time there was a little girl, and she had a little curl which wasn't right in the middle of her forehead. It was back of one of her ears, and one day after she had burned it nearly off about seventeen times she thought of a great scheme.

That very same evening a man—yes, there was a man in the case—noticed that dear little curl, and immediately burst forth into a spasm of admiration for it.

"A perfect ringlet," he went on. "Ah, how pretty it is! The little dainty curl!"

Then, as he twined it lovingly about his finger, the pretty little curl unfastened itself and lay calmly in his hand.

It was really quite embarrassing all around.

The dear child had burned off the original curl, so she pinned on one of her mamma's for a substitute. It was but natural, I suppose, for that man to pick out the only curl that did not belong there. One can never give a reason for such things.

Never, never do as that girl did, for when a man gets so that he admires your curls you may convince yourself then and there that he is in earnest. It is really a pity to have pretty scenes broken up just because of a horrid little false curl, and so it may be the wiser plan to go right on curling and burning. Then you'll know that the curls are your very own, even if they do have a peculiar burnt odor.—Chicago News-Record.

He Knew What News Was.

The man was ugly, but the city editor of The Western Wind sized him up in two minutes.

"Is this the newspaper office?" inquired the caller.

"It is," replied the man at the desk.

"Didn't this paper say I was a liar?" and he began prancing.

"It did not."

"Didn't it say I was a thief?"

"It did not."

"Didn't it say I was a scoundrel?"

"It did not."

"Didn't it say I was a bully and a braggart, and whipped my wife?"

"It did not."

"Well, some paper said it."

"Possibly it was our contemporary down the street," suggested the city editor as he caressed a paper weight. "This paper publishes only what is news."—Exchange.

Not So Much Work.

Longe—Don't you get tired of being on the road?

Strappe—I did last year, but this year I have had more time to enjoy myself.

Longe—How's that?

Strappe—I am on a salary now.—Clothier and Furnisher.

Couldn't Tell.

"What side is the gentleman on?" asked the stranger who had been listening for two hours to a lawyer arguing a case in the supreme court. "I don't know," replied the gentlemanly doorkeeper; "he hasn't committed himself yet."—Green Bag.

Too Dangerous.

Miss Battery—Do they throw old shoes at wedding parties in Chicago when the bride is leaving?

Miss Cahokia—Well, I rather guess not. Do you suppose they want their carriages smashed.—Detroit Free Press.

As the Clock Struck Twelve.

Mr. Staylate—Yes, Miss Genevieve, I have been hunting for lodgings all the week.

Miss Genevieve—You seem to have found them at last, Mr. Staylate.—Chicago News-Record.

What He Was Doing.

"Where is papa, Bertie?" asked mamma of her little boy.

"Oh," replied the little fellow, "he's out in the kitchen unhammering a box."—Youth's Companion.

"Manchester Cullings" received too late for this issue.

Congressman J. G. Shaw has commenced drawing his salary from Uncle Sam.

Mr. Novitzky has moved into his handsome new store, one of the best appointed clothing warehouses in the South.

It is now time for our town authorities to beautify Eccles' Park; it could be made a charming summer retreat by a little attention.

Mrs. Henry Smith will occupy her handsome new residence on Rowan street the first of next month. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kyle will move into the house she vacates.

General LeDuc, Receiver of the People's National Bank, requests us to state that the J. P. McLean advertised in schedule A of the supplement is not our county man, Mr. John P. McLean.

Reduced Rates.

The C. F. & Y. V. Co. will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates on account of the Y. M. C. A. State Convention at Charlotte, March 21st to 24th. Fare from Fayetteville $6.65; from Sanford $6.05.

Work on the A. C. L. depot is progressing rapidly. The ground floors have been laid, and the first story almost completed, so that now our citizens can get some idea as to how this handsome station will look. The large sewer will be finished this week.

Tramps took possession of the Hay Street Methodist Sunday School room several nights ago, and mutilated the furniture, burned up a load of wood, and in other ways desecrated this sacred edifice. No punishment could be too severe for them if caught.

The Carolina Club is on its feet again and promises to be a permanent success, under the management of Capt. J. C. Huske, Jr., one of the most popular young men in the State. The club was opened on March 1st, and now has some thirty odd of our best citizens as members. It has no officers, which are the bug-bear of all such organizations, creating jealousies and fomenting quarrels, its affairs being directed solely by Capt. Huske. After Lent the manager proposes to give a series of whist parties to the young people.

Buy No Others.

All persons are hereby cautioned against buying copies of the OBSERVER offered for sale on the streets unless, in every case, the words "For Transient Sale" are stamped on the margin of the paper. Should a newsboy or carrier offer for sale a copy of the OBSERVER not stamped, he should be promptly reported at this office.

What the Children Did.

The gross receipts of the first delightful Graded School entertainment of the 22d ult. were $111.15, and the expenses were $25.25, leaving net proceeds $85.90, which will be used in the purchase of maps, charts etc., to aid the teachers in their work.

The performance of the 25th ult. netted $30.00 for the benefit of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry. Through lack of proper information, the reporter last week omitted to give the great credit due to Miss Eula May McDonald for her fine accompaniments rendered while Mrs. Robeson trained the classes.

The Triennial Growth of a Church.

Death of Mrs. H. McD. Robinson.

Mrs. Mary Hill Robinson, daughter of the late Col. C. D. Hill, of Faison, Duplin county, and wife of Mr. H. McD. Robinson, of this city, passed away, aged 34 years, at 5 o'clock P. M., on Sunday the 3rd inst., after a brief but severe illness.

For many years death has not come to us, so to shock and appal the whole community, so to rend the hearts of loving friends, as in the taking away of this devoted young wife and noble mother—(two dear little girls miss now her tender kiss, sweet voice and fond, sheltering arms). Her realm, although she was admirably fitted to adorn any society, was about her hearthstone: an artistic lover of music, accomplished with the brush and palette, endowed with fine literary tastes, she lavished the wealth of all these gracious qualities in the embellishment of a home as beautiful as a dream. Its light has gone out in the darkness of terrible bereavement which has given back to God the strong true heart and brave hands of wifehood and motherhood. May His arms be about the stricken husband: May He be very tender with the little ones!

Mrs. Robinson was a member of the Presbyterian Church, where, on Tuesday morning, the funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. J. McKelway, the remains being conveyed via the Atlantic Coast Line R. R. to Faison for interment.

The active pall-bearers were: E. L. Pemberton, Sam Strange, A. S. Huske, A. J. Cook, B. R. Huske, Dr. H. W. Lilly, John D. Williams, Jr. Jr., and W. F. Leak.

The honorary pall-bearers were: H. R. Horne, A. A. McKethan, A. B. Williams, S. W. Tillinghast, J. K. Kyle and R. W. Bidgood.

County Commissioners Meeting.

Ordered that the tax collector be authorized to make correction in tax list of the heirs of A. J. Taylor.

Ordered that Jno. Taylor, David Ray, J. H. Haney, Duncan Johnson and Henderson Hitchcock be allowed to go to the house for the aged and infirm.

Ordered, that John Rollins be relieved of poll tax and the tax collector be authorized to correct the list.

Ordered, that Francis Graham be relieved of tax on lot on McIver street as he does not own a lot on said street.

Ordered, that the Hudson children be allowed $3.00 per month.

Ordered, that Owen Brown be relieved of poll tax on account of infirmity.

Ordered, that Abel Hales be allowed $2 per month.

Ordered, that Christian Wilson be allowed $2 per month.

Ordered, that the commissioners lay out a public road in Flea Hill Township according to the petition, provided it costs the county nothing.

Ordered, that Alex. Blanton and wife be allowed $1.50, and that Gracie McLean be allowed $1.50 per month.

Ordered, that the discontinuation of Williams's bridge over Lower Little River, and the building of a new bridge at Manchester, be referred to J. H. Smith.

Ordered, that the clerk enter the order for the collection of special tax on tax list of 1893.

Ordered, that the renting of the old court room be referred to J. M. Lamb, chairman, and N. W. Ray, attorney.

Ordered, that the Clerk of the Superior Court be requested to keep a book of all funds of trust according to law.

Ordered, that Louis Armstrong be allowed $1 per month.

Ordered, that the insolvent account be paid according to the instructions from attorney.

The Register of Deeds issued 17 marriage licenses during the month of Feb'y.

Another Assignment.

Equally as startling as the announcement of two weeks ago was that which greeted this community yesterday morning when the assignment the night before of Mr. William N. Tillinghast was made known, Mr. D. H. Ray being named as the assignee. Mr. Tillinghast has been in business at his present place for forty-one years, and, including the late Mr. Samuel W. Tillinghast, his father, who began business here many years before him, the name has weathered all the financial storms which have afflicted the land, in peace and war, since. Like the members of our other recent unfortunate firm, Mr. Tillinghast is a man of irreproachable character, and it is quite certain that his also is really an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. Tillinghast has our sincerest sympathy and that of the community.

Selling on a falling market under money contraction, is no doubt the cause of this as of the other failure.

ROLL OF HONOR.

Girls—Eliza Hill Robeson, Ellen Brandt.

It is our intention to have another entertainment at the close of school in May.

Very respectfully,
P. H. MATTHEWS, Sup't.

At the Presbyterian church on Sunday, February 24th, a called meeting in the interest of the Sunday School Work in the County was held. Owing to the coming of Messrs. Lumber Bridge News.

Mrs. E. M. McRae spent a few days with us last week and gave the ladies a very interesting and instructive talk. Quite a number of young girls were present, and one little girl was so entertained she remarked that she could listen to Mrs. McRae all day. Mrs. McRae has been doing some excellent work at Cranberry—a beautiful little place, by the way, and visited frequently by tourists.

Everyone was glad to see Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of your city last week.

It was quite a shock here to the friends of Mr. Ben Nicholson to hear of his death. He died of pneumonia at his home in Nashville, Tenn., his brother Charlie reaching his bedside a few days before he died. His remains were brought home for interment.

The lyceum grows more interesting each meeting. Last Friday night we were entertained by the following: Misses Lina and Mary Alice Malloy and Mary Ellen McMillan, and Messrs. Kyle Pemberton, Loch McGeachy, Jno. Ausley and Leslie McNair.

The President, Rev. P. R. Law, gave an instructive talk on Emphasis.

The following pupils of the Lumber Bridge High School were commended for their punctuality for the second month of the Spring session: Misses Nelia Shaw, Fodie C. Molloy, Treva Malloy, Emma Currie, Mary A. Jackson, Ella Hursey, Mary E. McMillan and Virgie Bass; Messrs. W. J. McNaughton, Emmett Pemberton, Nathaniel McArthur, Don McDougald, C. D. Alford, Worth Shaw, M. D. Hursey, E. S. Hursey, F. L. Blue, Leslie McNair, Charlie McNair, Ira Bass and Cleveland Jackson.

The Fred Douglass Infamy.

AMAZING.

Norfolk, (Va.,) Ledger.

The dispatch from Raleigh, which announces that the North Carolina Legislature, after refusing to honor the memory of George Washington and Robert E. Lee, had voted to adjourn over a day for the purpose of paying its respects to the memory of Frederick Douglass, will strike the friends and admirers of the Old North State with amazement. The political upheaval which took place in that State last fall produced changes of a very radical character, but nobody outside of the walls of a lunatic asylum ever thought for a moment that the Legislature of the State which furnished such men as Vance, Jarvis and Ransom for its public service, could hold the memory of Frederick Douglass in higher regard than that of Washington or Lee.

A BLOT UPON THE SOUTH.

Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

The Legislature of North Carolina is not only a disgrace to the Tar Heel State, but a blot upon the South. The combination of Pops and Republicans could have made a better record for themselves than casting a slur upon the names of Washington and Lee, and then honoring Douglass in such a manner. "Non sum qualis eram," says the once proud old State.

HOW IS THIS FOR FUSION?

Danville, (Va.) Register.

The people of North Carolina know what fusion means. * * If this does not defeat the Populists in North Carolina, then the people of that State need missionaries worse than China or Japan or Africa.

Senator Carver's Rival.

Raleigh News and Observer.

Senator Carver, of Cumberland, who has killed eighty-eight deer and 1,274 foxes, is not by any means the champion hunter of Cumberland county. Mr. William Love, who lives in Western Cumberland possibly enjoys that distinction. In reply to a question as to how many deer he has killed, Mr. Love says he has, in his day and time, killed 475 deer, 350 turkeys, and 50 eagles. He was born in 1822, being now 73 years old, and killed eleven deer before he was 12 years of age. Of fourteen deer, he killed two at one time. The largest number of turkeys he ever killed at one shot was ten. Mr. Love lives in a section of country in which, until recently, deer were plentiful, sometimes going in herds as sheep are accustomed to go. But now they have well nigh entirely disappeared, Mr. Love having shot his last deer in 1889, six years ago.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., March 1, 1895.

At a regular meeting of Phœnix Lodge, No. 8, A. F. & A. M., held this day, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS: It hath pleased the Great Ruler of all things in His infinite wisdom to call from labor to rest our esteemed Brother JOHN A. JOHNSON, who departed this life February 25th, 1895. Only a few months ago it was our pleasure and privilege to raise him to the degree of a Master Mason, and since that time his great love for, and interest in, the order convinced all that we made no mistake, and had he lived, he would have made one of our most active, useful and efficient members; therefore as a tribute of respect and fraternal love be it Resolved, 1st. That as a Lodge we have sustained a great loss in the death of our beloved Brother.

2nd. That we desire to express our sense of his noble qualities as a citizen and a Mason.

3rd. That we sympathize with his bereaved family in this their great loss, and pray that the loving Father, whose care is over all his creatures, will sustain them in this their great bereavement.

4th. That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and that a copy be sent to the family of our deceased Brother and also to the "Fayetteville Observer" and "North Carolina Baptist for publication.

HALL OF THE DIALECTIC SOCIETY,
February 21st, 1895.

WHEREAS: The All-wise Providence has seen fit to remove from our midst our late fellow member, WILLIAM H. GREEN, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, It is the desire of this body to manifest due recognition of his many virtues; therefore be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him that doeth all things well, we do not mourn the less the departure of our esteemed brother; and we believe that our loss is his eternal gain. Be it also

Resolved, That in his death this Society has lost a devoted member, the University a promising student, and one whom it knows to have been a dutiful son and a devoted friend. Further, be it

Resolved, That the Dialectic Society, of which he was a cherished member, extend its deep and heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and friends. Be it finally

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the afflicted family, to the State Press, and to the University publications, and that they also be spread upon a page of the minutes dedicated to his memory.

Spring Medicine

All the ills of the Season Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"In the spring I was all run down, my appetite was poor, and had severe headaches. I was also afflicted with liver and kidney trouble, indigestion and constipation. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and I began to feel much better. I could sleep nights, and Enjoy Good Rest.

I also began to eat more and my food digested well. I have now taken over seven bottles and everybody tells me I am the picture of health. When I felt so badly I weighed 110 pounds, although with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

Every Young Man

should be possessed of certain information without which millions contract pernicious and most destructive habits—habits which make young men prematurely aged, pale, haggard, listless, devoid of ambition, easily tired, languid, forgetful and incapable; fill madhouses and swell the lists of suicides; separate husbands and wives; bring untold suffering to millions, even unto the third and fourth generations. Parents, guardians and philanthropists can do no better service to the rising generation, than to place in their hands the information and warnings contained in a little book carefully prepared by an association of medical men who have had vast experience in dealing with the grave maladies here hinted at, and who feel that they owe it to humanity to warn the young of the land against certain destructive habits which are far more prevalent than any layman can imagine, and which if persisted in gradually undermine the constitution and health and destroy the future happiness of the victim. Cut out this notice and enclose it with ten cents in stamps (to pay postage) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and the book will be sent, secure from observation in a plain sealed envelope.
